COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

March 3, 2011 ~ 4-7pm

Sponsored by...

Developmental Disability Services of Jackson County - EITAS
Kansas City, Missouri Parks and Recreation

UMKC-Institute for Human Development

Guiding Coalition, Access to Recreation

Mayor's Committee for People with Disabilities

Please join us...

Please join us as we provide an opportunity for representatives from the community to gain a better understanding of the issues individuals with disabilities face. We trust you will find our speakers and discussion panel valuable as we continue to build a plan of action for community integration for persons with disabilities to enjoy leisure and recreation activities throughout the greater Kansas City area.

Special Guests...

Kathie Snow, Disability is Natural Since 1991, Kathie has presented hundreds of keynotes and in-depth workshops at conferences in over forty-five states and in Canada, for audiences of parents of children with disabilities, adults with disabilities, service providers, educators, and other professionals. She will share commonsense strategies to ensure children and adults with disabilities live real lives, fully included in their homes, schools, workplaces, and communities.

Sue Fleming, Recreation Council of Greater St. Louis The Recreation Council of Greater St. Louis is a not-for-profit organization which serves as a clearinghouse for information on leisure, recreation and socialization opportunities for individuals with developmental disabilities who reside in the Greater St. Louis Area. The Council works to ensure that individuals with disabilities are aware of and have access to activities and programs of their choice. Sue will share the history, mission, and types of supports provided to people with disabilities, as well as the collaborative spirit between Senate Bill 40 Boards.
